GOD-SEEKING.

BY WATSON.

William Watson, born August 2, 1858, the son of a Yorkshire former, is one of the newer English poets of the front rank, having first attracted attention by the publication of his "Wordsworth's Grave," in 1896, although he already by the publication very small volumes of verse, the first in 1880. One of them had issued several very small volumes of verse, the first in 1880. One of them entitled, "Epigrams of Art, Life and Nature," is growing to be more appresented from year to year, and has galand aiready for the author, from high authority, the title of "worthy successor" to Landor and Pone as an epigrammatist. A versified excerlation of Europe for its supineness during the Turkish atroctics in Armenia in 1896, under the title, "Year of Shame," made a deen impression.

p impression. Copyright, Used by permission of, and arrangement with, John Lane.)

OD-SEEKING thou hast journeyed far and

On dawn-lit mountain-tops thy soul did yearn

To hear His trailing garments wander by; And where 'mid thunderous glooms great sunsets burn,

Vainly thou sought'st His shadow on sea

Or gazing up, at noontide, could'st dis-only a neutral heaven's indifferent eye And countenance austerely taciturn.

Yet whom thou soughtest I have found at last, Neither where tempest dims the world below, Nor where the westering daylight reels aghast In conflagrations of red overthrow:

But where this virgin brooklet silvers past, And, yellowing either bank, the king-cups blow.

William Walson

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day

WITH EDGED TOOLS.

CUT THIS OUT AND KEEP IT. You Will Want to Read this Story

BY HENRY SETON MERRIMAN.

. . ONE OF MERRIMAN'S STRONGEST BOOKS . .

During the last forty-eight hours Guy Oscard had made the decision that life without Millicent Chyne would not be worth having, and in the hush of the great house he was pondering over this new feature in his existence. Like all deliberate men, he was placidly sanguine. Something in the life of a savage sport that he had led had no doubt taught him to rely upon his own nerve and capacity more than men do. It is the independent of the control of man was unnatural—it frightened the younger and stronger combatant.

At last duy Oscard got his knee on his father's neck, and bent his wrist back until he was forced to let go his hold on of the bottle.

"Get back to bed!" said the son, breath-dessly. "Get back to bed!"

Thomas Oscard suddenly changed his tactics. He whined and cringed to his own offspring, and beaged him to give him the bottle. He dragged across the floor on his knees—three thousand pounds a year on its knees to Guy Oscard, who wanted that money because he knew that he would never get Millecent Chyne with out it.

"Get back to bed!" repeated Guy, sternly, and at last the man crept sullenly between the rumpled sheets.
Guy put things straight in a simple, manilke way. The doctor's instructions were quite clear. If any sign of excitement or mental unrest manifested itself, the sleeping-draught contained in a small bottle on the mantel-plece was to be administered at once, or the consequences would be fatal. But Thomas Oscard refused to take it. He seemed determined to kill himself. The son stood over him

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family.

This question arises in the family.

This question arises in the family.

At last dup yound thirty hours—there could not have lived in the should and wise you to face t

Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try berry and Strawberry. Get a

the Bride Sterling Silver

Give

Because it is lasting and useful, and always appeals to people of good taste.

We have a splendid line of the latest novelties and designs in Sterling Silvervare which will interest you-and how gently they touch the pocket-book! Come in and look at them.

Schwarzschild Bros. Corner Second and Broad Sts.

Chyne's aunt,

"It is very good of you to call," she said, "so soon after your poor father's death. You must have had a great deal of trouble and work. Millicent and I have often talked of you and sympathized with you. She is out at the moment, but I expect her back almost at once. Will you sit down?"

"Thanks," he said; and, after he had drawn forward a chair, he repeated the word vaguely and comprehensively—"thanks," as if to cover as many demands for gratitude as she could make.
"I knew your father very well." conmands for gratitude as she could make.

"I knew your fither very well." continued the lady, "when we were young.
Great things were expected of him. Perhaps he expected them himself. That may have accounted for a tone of pessimism that always seemed to pervade his life. Now, you are quite different.
You are not a pessimist—eh?"

Give gravity experts of his

Guy gravely examined the back of his gloved hand. "Well, I am afraid I have not given much thought to the question."

Lady Cantourne gave him the benefit of a very wise smile. She was unrivalled in the art of turning a young man's mind out and shaking it.
"No. you need not appleaded I am mind out and shaking it.

"No, you need not apologize, I am glad you have given no thought to it. Thought is the beginning of pessimism, especially with young men; for if they think at all, they naturally think of themselves."
"Well, I suppose I think as much of myself as other people."

"Well, I suppose I think as much of myself as other people."
"Possibly, but I doubt it. Would you ring the bell? We will have some tea." He obeyed, and she watched him with approval. For some reason—possibly because he had not sought it—Lady Cantourne had bestqwed her entire approval on this young man. She had been duly informed, a few weeks before this visit, that Miss Millicent Chyne had engaged herself to be married to Jack Meredith whenever that youth should find himself in a position to claim the fulfilment of her promise. She said nothing against her choice or her decision, merely observing that she was sorry that Jack had During the last forty-eight hours Guy Oscard and made the decision that tile without Millicent Chyne would not be made to sleep, the reputed three thousand a year would be his before the meraphy of the way of the many the property that he had ted had no doubt award that he present that the had ted had no doubt award that he present that spatials in germ of pessimiam.

His thoughts cannot have been disturbing, for presently his yes doued and he selep, it was the light unconsclousness of the two present that years and the was already to the term of the two presents and the present that years are sould scarce have heard it was already to the term of the two presents and the present that years are the pre serving that she was sorry that Jack had quarreled with his father. By way of counsel she advised strongly that the en-

Why will you go abroad?"
Guy Oscard paused for a moment. "I

Guy Oscard paused for a moment. "I know an old hippopotamus in a certain African river who has twice upset me. I want to go back and shoot him."

"Don't go at once; that would be running away from it—not from the hippopotamus—from the inquest. It does not matter being upset in an African river; but you must not be upset in London by—an inquest."

"I did not propose going at once," replied Guy Oscard, with a peculiar smile which Lady Cantourne thought she understood. "It will take me some time to set my affairs in order—the will, and all that."

Lady Cantourne waited with perfectly that."

Lady Cantourne waited with perfectly suppressed curiousity, and while she was waiting Millicent Chyne came into the room. The girl was dressed with her habitual perfect taste and success, and she came forward with a smile of genuine pleasure, holding out a small hand neatly gloved in Suede. Her ladyship was looking, not at Millicent, but at Guy Oscard.

Millicent was glad that he had called, and sald so. She did not add that during the three months that had elapsed since Jack Meredith's sudden departure she had gradually recognized the approaching choof a very full tide of popularity. It was rather dull at times, when Jack's letters arrived at intervals of two and somettimes of three weeke—when her girl friends allowed her to see somewhat plainly that she was no longer to be counted as one of themselves. An engagement sits as it were on a young lady like a weak heart on a school-boy, setting her apart in work and play, debarring her from participation in that game of life which is ever going forward where young folks do congregate.

he keen eye of the world saw the weak boint in his story at once. But the corner's jury was respectful, and the rest of society never so much as hinted at he possibility that Guy had not tried its best to keep his father alive. Among the letters of sympathy the oung fellow received a note from Lady fantourne, whose acquaintance he had uccessfully renewed, and in due course the called at her house in Vere Gardens of express somewhat lamely his gratifulde.

ode. Her ladyship was at home, and in due course Guy Oscard was ushered into her presence. He looked round the room with a half-suppressed gleam of searchling which was not overlooked by Millicent

(To be continued to-morrow)

Social and Sersonal 8

The wedding of Miss Ellen Cary Nash to Mr. Richard Cartor Beverley was celebrated at 6:30 P. M. yesterday in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clara Nash, of No. 708 East Grace Street.

Tasteful parlor and hall decorations were in green and white, white flowers and Southern smilax carrying out the color idea, while an evergreen arch spanned the minature altar in the front parlor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Monde Clark, of St. James's Episcopal Church, and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

The bride wore white slik mull trimmed in point lace and a tulle vell. Her flowers were Bride roses. She was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Willie W. Nash, gowned in green mousseline de sole, and carrying white roses. Miss Clara Guthrie and Miss Francie Beverley, the two bridesmaids, were in white, with bouquots of maldenhair ferns.

Mr. R. Bland Beverley was best man to the groom. Mr. Beverley H. Randolph and Mr. Richard C. Turner were groomsmen and Mr. D. C. Randolph master of ceremonies.

to the groom, Mr. Beverley H. Randelph and Mr. Richard C. Turner were groomsmen and Mr. D. C. Randelph master of ceremonies.

Out-of-town guests who came to Richmend for the wedding were Mrs. Robert Beverley, Miss Fannie Beverley and Mr. Bland Beverley, of Essex county, Va.; Mr. Robert Beverley, of Essex county, Va.; Mr. Robert Beverley, of Norfolk, and Mr. Harry Beverley, of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. R. Taylor Scott, of Warrenton, Va.; Missos Leary and Mrs. Archer, of Amelia; Caprillan Joe Hobson and Mrs. Alex. Hobson, of Powhatan; Miss Guthrie, of Tennessee; Mrs. Allnutt and Miss Balmer, of Powhatan county.

Mr. and Mrs. Beyerley left last evening for a Northern tour. They will return to make their home in Richmond, where Mr. Beverley is engaged in business.

Reception at the Jefferson This Reception at the Jefferson This Afternoon.

C. Henneberger, the recently

Mrs. A. C. Henneberger, the recently elected vice-regant of the national organization, Daughters of the American Revolution, from Harrisonburg, Va., will be the guest of honor at a reception to be given from 5 to 7 P. M. to-day by the Commonwealth and Old Dominion Chapters of Daughters.

The receiving party will include Miss Roberta Allen, Mrs. T. A. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Nelson, Mrs. A. F. Huntt and Mrs. Larken Glazebrook, from the Commonwealth Chapter; Miss Lucy Claire Atkinson and the officers from the Old Dominion Chapter.

Refreshments will be served by Misses Saidle and Waller Jeffress, Miss Charlotte Miller, Miss Winn, Miss Myra Chambers, Miss Bessie Seldon, Miss Glazebrook and others.

Mrs. Henneberger will be the guest of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities in the excursion to Jamestown on Saturday, May 14th.

Jamestown Excursion.

Jamestown Excursion.

Jamestown on Saturday, May 14th.

Jamestown Excursion.

The tickets for the Jamestown excursion, to take place to-morrow, May 14th, have sold rapidly, and there is every indication that a very large and enthusiastic crowd will accompany the Antiquarians to-morrow on their annual visit to the island, towards which the attention of the whole United States is now being directed.

The Berkeley is a commodious and handsome steamer, and Captain Sully is noted for his uniform cordinality and courtesy. The steamer will leave the wharf punctually at 7:30 o'clock, and those koing are admonished to be on schedule time and to purchase their tickets beforehand.

Many visitors in Richmond, including Mrs, Joseph R. Lamar, of Georgia; Miss Wirginia Corse, of Alexandria; Mrs. Charles Washington Coleman, of Williemsburg, and Mrs. A. C. Henneberger, of Harrisonburg, Vn., will go to Jamestown. The musicians who participated in the concert given for the benefit of the A. P. V. A., in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association on April 11th, have been invited tog to Jamestown. The tide of interest and expectation has never seemed to run quite so high before, and the levely May weather promises to render the trip a veritable delight.

delight,
Lunch will be served on board the steamer. There will be ample time for all going to examine the excavations at Jamestown, go into the tower and decipher the inscriptions on the restored fombstones in the church yard. The "Cradle of the Republic" furnishes an object lesson in history, which all Virginians should learn by heart from personal observation. delight.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot, of Montreal, Canada, are stopping at No. 115 Frank-in Street. East. Mr. Hendershot is auditor of the Sun Life Insurance Com-pany of Canada.

Mr. R. A. Trice, of Buckner's Stati Va., who was severely hurt by a fall from a wagon recently, has been able to resume his business at the Tobacco Exchance and washess. Exchange and warehouses this week.

The Rev. Cary Beckwith will take Master Haxall Grundy for an extended trip abroad this summer. They expect to sail some time next week.

Miss Elizabeth K. Pendleton, of Ashland, was the guest of Miss Bessie L. French, of No. 715 East Franklin Street, last week.

Mrs. John Harwood, Miss Leary, of Amelia: Mrs. James Tyler, Jr., and Mr. Marshall Harwood will join the excursion-lsts in their trip to Jamestown Satur-

Three little girls of the West End-Edith L. McConnell, Louise Finch and Mary Zollicoffer-were very successful in their realizations from a sale recently

A STRONG STATEMENT

FOERG'S REMEDY

The Great Blood Purifier.

CAPT. C. T. ALLEN, Mexico, Mo. Lewyer, Soldier, Legislator, Lecturer.

Mexico, Mo., Aug. 25, 1908.

I knew Philip Foerg, of Princeton, Ky., for thirty years. He was my neighbor and friend. I knew that he originated and, after many years of persistent effort, perfected "Foerg's Remedy." So highly did I appreciate it as a perfect and complete remedy for all kinds and degrees of blood impurities that I endeavored, twenty years or more ago, to organize a joint-stock company to place this wonderful remedy on the world's market. Mr. Foerg very properly declined to surrender the formula for making the remedy unless a sufficient amount of paid-up stock was raised, etc., and this I failed to do. Then Mr. Foerg himself, in a limited way, made and sold it for twenty years before his death. By his will he left the formula for making this remedy to Mr. Hugh Mayes, and Princeton Williams Servetay and Transuccept of Princeton, Ky., now Secretary and Treasurer of "The Foerg Remedy Company," Evansville, Ind. I know it to be a fact that Mr. Foerg for twenty years offered $1,000 spot cash (he was amply able to make such an offer) for any case based on blood impurity which his remedy would not cure, and I know that he was often challenged to the contest, and he never lost a case.

C. T. ALLEN.

With the above information before you, if you go on suffering from the curse of poisoned blood, either primary, constitutional or as a result of mercurial treatment, don't rail at fate but simply blame yourself, for here is a cure—absolute and sure. Tainted blood manifests itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatic Pains, Stiff or Swollen Joints, Eruptions or Copper-colored Spots on the Face or Body, Little Ulcers in the Mouth or on the Tongue, Sore Throat, Swollen Tonsils, Falling out of the Hair or Eyebrows, and finally a Leprous-Like Decay of the Flesh and Bones. If you have any one of these symptoms don't delay till too late, but go to your druggist and get a bottle of

FOERG'S REMEDY, The Great Blood Purifier

If your druggist does not handle this remedy send us $1.00 for one bottle or $5.00 for six bottles, and absolute guarantes. All packages sent in plain wrappers. All correspondence strictly confidential.

FOERG REMEDY CO.,

EVANSVILLE, IND.

OWENS & MINOR DRUG CO., AGENTS.

held. They have turned over to Mrs. John Harwood quite a nice sum for the benefit of the Home for Incurables.

Mrs. James Alston Cabell, Mrs. Lyster and Mrs. Lamar will be entertained by Mrs. William McC. Ramsay to-day in her lovely colonial home, Westover.

Mrs. Virginius Hall has returned from a winter seent in the South much ima winter spent in the South, much improved in health.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Leigh Street Baptist Church will give an entertainment this evening, at which the military drill recently given by a company of young ladies in Broad Street Methodist Church will be repeated.

The Emma Andrews Whist Club will meet to-day at 4:30 P. M. in No. 113 East Grace Street.

EPISCOPAL NOTES.

Diocesan Council to Meet Here Next Week. The Virginia Council will meet in St. James Church, this city, beginning Wednesday, May 18th. The special services in connection with the council will be as follows:

Wednesday, 10 A. M.—Morning prayer, council sermon and Holy communion; 8:15 P. M.—Meeting in interest of Diocesan Mission.
Thursday, 11 A. M.—Morning prayer and address by Bishop Kinsolving, of Bravil, on his work; 8:15 P. M.—Evening prayer and address by Dr. A. L. Lloyd, of the beard of managers.

Friday, 11 A. M.-Morning prayer.

The Rev. E. L. Goodwin, of St. Mark's Church, this city, has accepted the call to St. John's Church, Vienna, and the Church of the Holy Comforter, Fairfax

The Rev. Angus Crawford, D. D., of the Virginia Theological Seminary, will deliver an address before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in Grace Church lecture room, this city, on Monday evening, May 16th,

The Rev. T. Carter Page, of Wickliffe, Va., has accepted the call extended to him by the churches at Front Royal and White Post, and has taken charge of Support a Missionary.

Support a Wissionary.

The Third Presbyterian Church of Richmond has decided to undertake the support of a foreign missionary, and the itev. William D. Reynolds, of Korea, has been selected. The support of Mrs. Reynolds is secured by the Grace Street Church, of which she is a much beloved reacher.

MISSION IN PERSIA.

Baptists to Spread Gospel in Another Foreign Land-Notes. The Bantist Foreign Mission Board, located here, has decided to open a mission in Persia, and the Rev. J. Frank Ray, recently appointed, has been asked to the charge. It has not yet been determined at just what point in Persia the work will be started.

The Examiner prints what purports to be a list furnished by Rev. E. C. Romine, of Philadelphia, of "All the Living Baptist Ministers in the United States" who have been ordained fifty vears or more. Virginia is credited with two-Dr. A. E. Dickinson and J. R. Garlick, both of whom were ordained in 1848. There are probably others that the Examiner has overlooked.

Dr. B. D. Gray, secretary of the Baptist Home Mission Board, announces that the total cash received for home missions from Virginia was $12,002.92. This is $1.118.24 in excess of the amount received from the same source during the previous year.

ALREADY THEY COME. Exhibit at St. Louis Beginning

Exhibit at St. Louis Beginning
This Early to Bring Results.
That the magnificent exhibit Virginia has at St. Louis is going to be the means of bringing cabilat to this State, as well as home-seekers, is quite apparent, for durifos to be made in resard to Virginia, and yesterday a Western man called unon Commissioner Koiner in order to ascertain detailed information as to the mineral wealth to be found within our borders. He said that the splendid mineral wealth to be found within our cortain detailed information as to the mineral wealth to be found within our borders. He said that the splendid mineral exhibit which Virginia has at St. Louis had attracted his attention and caused him to take the trip to the State as well as a state of the state of th This Early to Bring Results.

That the magnificent exhibit Virginia has at St. Louis is going to be the means or bringing capital to this State, as well as home-seekers, is quite apparent, for the display has already caused many inquiries to be made in researd to Virginia, and vesterday a Western man called mon Commissioner Kolner in order to ascertain detailed information as to the mineral wealth to be found within our borders. He said that the splendid mineral exhibit which Virginia has at St. Louis had altracted his attention and caused him to take the trip to the State in order to onsice investigations. Mr. Kolner had quite a lengthy talk with the Westerner and gave him the information le desired.

Stoves, Stoves, $\equiv$ Stoves. $\equiv$

We handle the best Gas Stoves in the city. Also the famous BLUE FLAME OIL STOVES. Call and inspect our stock.

W. ANDERSON,

701 East Main Street.

AINSLIE

Carriage Co. BUILDERS OF M M

Fine Carriages.

8-10-12 Ioth St., Richmond, Va. Our Spring and Summer Stock Is Now Complete.

Beginning on Friday, the 13th,

AN EXHIBIT OF

Fine Etchings, Engravings Old English Colored Prints

from Bendann's Art Rooms, Balti-more, Md., will be made at our store for a few days only.

A Chance to Obtain Celebrated Pictures by such noted authors are De Taille, Halg, Sadler, Chauver and others.

SEE OUR WINDOW. The Bell Book and Stationery Co.,

914 E. Main Street.

THE FEDERAL COURT. A Receivership and a Bankruptcy

Case Argued Yesterday. The judges in attendance on the Circul The judges in attendance on the Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday were Circuit Judge Nathan Goff, District Judges Thomas J. Morris and Thomas R. Purnell. The following cases were argued: No. 546-Gorman-Wright Company and Southern Machine M'f'g Co., Inc.

'Phone 3392. 731 East Cary Street.

PRACTICAL MACHINISTS, FOUNDRY WORK, PIPE CUTTING.

Special Machinery Built.

No job too large or too small to receive prompt attention.

Let Us Estimate on Your Work.

STEPHEN A. ELLISON, of Wm. H. Cullingworth & Co.

ELLISON & McCAW, COAL

Highest Grade Pennsylvania and Virginia Anthracite. Highest Grade Kanawha Splint and New-River Lump.

All Sizes. All fuel at market prices, Coal carefully screened—quality and service unsurpassed.

Pine, Oak and Hickory Wood.

Eighteenth and Broad Streets, 'Phone 250.

Harrison and Broad Streets, 'Phone 2914.